

Unburdening

Estimated percentage of students with the same grade after reducing the number of GCSE components, %

Notes: For Combined Science, each point represents a unique combination of three components, one from each Physics, Biology and Chemistry. For other subjects, each point represents a unique combination of two components. OCR qualifications only. For more, see Gill (2025).